FOREWORD

Family Bibles, handed down from generation to generation, are often lost to the genealogist. They travelled west with pioneers and lay in attics far away from places where the original families lived.

This book is only the beginning of our attempt to make available Bible records of Seneca Co. We're collecting records that pertain to present or past Seneca Co. residents, or records from Bibles that are now in Seneca Co.

We've tried to be accurate in decyphering old handwriting, and have tried to always print what they wrote as they wrote it.

If you know of a Seneca Co. Bible with family information in it, we'd like to hear from you. (Seneca Co. Genealogical Society, PO Box 841, Tiffin, OH 44883.)

Becky Hill, president SCGS
Cher Bibler, Bible record committee

A few people deserve special thanks for their work on this collection.

First - Arlynn Gantz, who suggested the idea and started the ball rolling.

Second - Anneliese Rochester, who translated records which were in German.

Third - Shirley Rogier, who typed them all up.

Fourth - Ken Foy, who was in charge of printing.

Fifth - Everyone who copied and turned in Bible records.

And a special thanks to Pat Gutteau for all her help

JACOB HERSHBERGER BIBLE

This is a huge Bible, printed April 1806 by Sage & Clough for Robt. McDermut, 248 Pearl St., New York and I. Cooke & Co., New Haven. The records are written in German on one page, and on another is a translation. Anneliese Rochester checked the translation and said it's a free translation; the names and the dates are correct; but they forgot to include the first entry, which is the marriage. So we're using the translation as it appears in the bible, plus Anneliese's translation of the first entry. The bible is owned by Anna Zeis.

August 24 - At the residence of his brother-in-law in Kingston, Ohio, of typhoid fever, James M'Gahan, in the twenty-second year of his age.

The nature of his disease was such that he could not converse much. He lived respected and beloved. He has left many friends to mourn, but not as those who have no hope.

Given to their daughter, Clara Sarah (Ross) Hetrick; next to her son Arthur Hetrick; at his death Mrs. Barbara Jean (Dillon) Macomber (an adopted daughter) gave it to Mrs. Linda Houyouse, 4065 Germano Rd. SE, Carrollton, OH, who has it today. A large leather-bound, with carved front cover, German Bible. It is imprinted in gold on the front "John & Maggie Ross". The title is Illustrierte Heilige Schrift (on the cover) with the title page reading Die Neue Illustrierte Familien Bibel fur Hausliche Grbauung und Belehrung enthaltend vas Alte und neue Testament mit ben und der concordanz... all in stylized lettering so that my title may be incorrect. The Bible is written in German but was published by A. J. Holman & Co., Philadelphia, 1883. The marriage record seems incomplete and is very hard to read. From a yellowed handwritten translation tucked in the Bible comes the following records.
